

55 Somerset St.,
Newark, N. J.,
April 23, 1941.

Mr. M. A. Iannarella,
509 Market St.,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Mike:

I am enclosing you a copy for placards for our game in Atlantic City, May 14th. You do not have to rush these, but I do want you to send about 10 of our Opening Day cards to this man with the passes also. His name is Mr. Stewart E. Hoyt, Jr., Memorial Building, New York & Adriatic Aves., Atlantic City, N. J.

About the passes for the cards you are sending to Trenton, New York and Atlantic City, I forgot to speak of the service charge, it should be as follows: "This pass plus 25¢ government tax and service charge will admit bearer to Grandstand seat." This service charge is different from the amount we charge in Newark, which is 40¢, but this is due to the fact that the people so far away from Newark feel that they should get a better proposition than the 25¢ off. With the cards you are shipping me here to Newark, I will take care of the passes as usual. Please send me a sample of the pass, so I can have it for identification at the Ball Park.

Very truly yours,

EM:CCJ